

Provisional Program
SCAR Antarctic Geodesy Symposium (AGS02)
25-27 November 2002
LINZ Building, Wellington, New Zealand

Monday, 25th November 2002

1500 Registration - LINZ Building reception on the 11th floor
1700 Ice breaker

Tuesday, 26th November 2002

1. Welcome addresses by
  - SCAR Vice President from New Zealand - Dr Clive Howard-Williams
  - SCAR GSSG Chief Officer - Dr Phil O'Brien
2. Address by Chairman Expert Group on Geospatial Information (GIG) - Mr John Manning
  - Status GIG and the GIANT program
  - The on-line geodetic control index project
3. Regional geodetic networks in Antarctica
  - Trans Antarctic Mountains
    - TAMDEF
    - Victoria Land
  - Antarctic Peninsula
  - Ongul Island
  - Larsemann Hills
    - CHINARE networks
    - ANARE networks
  - King George Island
  - West Antarctic Ice Sheet project
  - Prince Charles Mountains
4. Remote operational technology
  - Power and data storage
  - Satellite data transmissions

Wednesday 27th November 2002

5. Sea Level
  - Tide gauge locations
  - Water level calibrations on sea ice
6. Storage and availability of geodetic data
  - CDDIS holdings
  - Dresden data centre
  - On Line geodetic data bases
  - GLOSS and PSMSL databases
7. Gravity and Geoid
  - Space borne sensors
  - Airborne sensors
8. Review of GIG workplan
  - Report and recommendations to Geoscience SSG
  - Future meetings
  - Proposed activities during austral summer 2002/2003
9. Other Business
10. Publication requirements for papers